By: Patrick Ishmael

On Thursday, December 6, Show-Me Institute Director of Government Accountability Patrick Ishmael appeared on KWMU-St. Louis Radio's St. Louis on the Air to discuss the future of health care in America.

In a wide-ranging discussion, Patrick and two other panelists—a physician and a former health insurance executive—debated the potential effects of increased government involvement and the constructive potential of the free market in health care policy.
